Customs receipts of Uniti for the first four months of the new fiscal year were $2.710,000, the highest total for such a period since the beginning of the American occupation in 1915. The cor-responding period for the fiscal year ended in September, 1923, reached the total of $2,314,000.

It is estimated that if the remain ing eight mouths of the fiscal year hold up to that period of last year, the total customs receipts will amount of $6. 230,00 as compared to $6,313,790 for the fiscal year of 1922-1923. Why Bleaching Is The Safest Way to Whiten Dark Teeth

Dentists' New Discovery Guaranteed to Remove Teeth Stains-Or Costs Nothing

A new gate method has been discovered which whitens teeth instantly, giving dull yellowish teeth a beautiful new flashing whiteness and lustre.

The old way to whiten stained teeth was to scrub them with harsh gritty abrasives, which usually scraped away the precious enamel. But this new safe method is entirely different. It is called Bleachodent Combination and consists of a mild liquid and a special kind of paste. This liquid softens and loosens the stains—while the special paste gently removes them. The reason this new method is safer than the old way is because the mild ingredients of Bleachodent Combination are especially combined to act only on the surface stains—not on the enamel itself.

You simply brush the teeth with a few drops of the mild harmless liquid— then use the paste, and note the instant results! See how quickly dull statued yellowish teeth acquire a new sparkling whiteness and glistening lustre. Tobacco and other stains disappear often with the first few applications!

Bleachodent was perfected by two prominent dentists who used it for four years on their own, teeth and on their patients' teeth with such highly beneficial results that the Bleachodent Dental Laboratories were organized to place

Quarrymen Study Stones Of Prehistoric Buildings

BEDFORD, IND., Aprpil 10.-- Re the A. P.)—Many different periods of history, some reaching back hundreds of years before Carist are represented in speciments of stone being assembled by the in-diana Limestone Quarrymen's Association. When completed the collec-tion is planned to constitute a comings from all ages traced by his-torians and Egyptologists are being gathered.

Most valuable of the material already obtained is the collection of stone furniture and tablets recenly dug from the tomb of Tel-Ll-Amrana and now being sent here by the Egypt Exploration Society, for exhibition during the spring confer ences of architects and builders. An effort is being made to obtain limestone speciments from the oldest lonia, four miles from Ur, of Biblical fame. Reports to the association declare this find has moved the ancient history of Babylonia back another thousand years. The building, discovered by the joint expedition of the British Museum and the University of Philadelphia, is declared to be more than 6.000 venrs old. Remarkable carvines of animals done in limestone, mosales, and even artificial flowers of stone are included in the find.

TENRY FORD appears to have carried Michigan on the Democratic side of the state primary by quite a de-

This means nothing more than that such few Democrats cisive majority. as went to the polls preferred something concrete to that which was altogether vague. As yet, no Democratic aspirant, with the exception of McAdoo is launched aggressively as an aspirant. It seems to be accepted that he can not be nominated, so virtually the Democrats are without a pronounced randidate though they have quite an imposing array of men-

In such a situation it was the expected that Michigan voters should express a preference for Ford. True enough he hasn't as much chance of being nominated as has McAdoo, but to the Michiganders he was something definite and therefore a choice as against the altogether unknown.

Ford has attained distinctive, even phenomenal achievement, in that having neither means, nor education, to start with, he has in a few years made himself the richest man the earth has ever known. Unreckonable wealth has not changed him greatly. He is still a plain and rather unpretentious citizen. All of which is most admirable in him, but in itself no positive assurance that he is equipped to be president.

The better sentiment of both country and party seem to feel that he is not. More than that he himself holds the same idea and finally, and as a finality, Mrs. Ford says Henry is not going to run for President.

To be sure Washington will make much of "the significant trend in the Democratic vote", but Washington is much given to making mountains out of mole hills, especially, in political matters, and after a few days the Ford episode will not be longer alluded to as significant.

FROM LIFE TO DEATH

THAT a striking contrast is suggested in the demolition of the Crawford building on Ninth street. Invariably we are accustomed to think of progress as proceeding from that which is decayed to something else that suggests renewed vigor and new life, but with this ancient structure, if we go pondering thereon, is a suggestion of the reverse, a proceeding from existence to nonexistence, with yet real progress.

The Crawford building in its prime was notable, no doubt, in its day, it was referred to as palatial. It was the home of a physician of more than usual attainment and large practice. To it came the ailing and the injured, seeking restoration to health and vigor. With the passing years and abandonment by its owner, it gradually fell into such low estate that only the desperately poor sought such shelter as its roof and walls afforded. Now it exists only in memory.

On its site will soon arise a mortuary to which will be brought only the dead to be prepared for the grave with all the circumstance that recent years have evolved.

What a contrast will be afforded there too. No longer the funeral black hearse with its mournful plumes and sleepy steeds, bringing a shudder at the very sight, with slow hoofs blows upon the heart, but from its wide doors will issue glistening ivory coach with noiseless power bearing it swiftly away. Verily, we live in a fast changing world.

Prudery is so nearly out of fashion that almost every-
